

Optimal design of federal grants to localities

Heng-Fu Zou

Creation Date

(1993)

Details:

[CITATION] Optimal design of federal grants to localities

H Zou - Policy Research Department (Washington, DC: Mimeo, ..., 1993

Cited by 3 - Related articles

Cited by:

[BOOK] Intergovernmental relations and economic management in China

J Ma - 1997 - getcited.org

An academic directory and search engine.

Cited by 107 - Related articles - Cached - All 3 versions

Macroeconomic management and intergovernmental relations in China

J Ma - 1995 - ideas.repec.org

Over the past 15 years, China has gradually moved from a highly centralized to a decentralized system in almost all aspects of economic management. Decentralization has changed the role of each level of government in economic management, and has greatly ...

Cited by 39 - Related articles - Cached - All 7 versions

Taxes, federal grants, local public spending, and growth

H Zou - Journal of Urban Economics, 1996 - Elsevier

In a dynamic model with both private and local public capital accumulation, this paper examines how federal and local income taxes, local consumption tax, and federal matching grants for local public consumption and local public investment affect the long-run ...

Cited by 35 - Related articles - BL Direct - All 11 versions